About these terms

This website is operated by Skyeblanc Certification, an independent third-party certification body. By using the site you agree to these terms. If you do not agree, please do not use the site.

We may update these terms from time to time; the version published here is the one that applies.

Using this site

You may use this site for lawful purposes only — to learn about our certification services, to verify a certificate, and to contact or apply to us. You must not misuse the site, attempt to gain unauthorised access, or use it to publish false or misleading information about certified organisations.

The site is not an offer of certification

Nothing on this site is a binding offer to certify, and submitting an application or receiving a quotation does not create any entitlement to a certificate. Certification is granted only after audit, by an independent decision-maker, and only where the evidence supports conformity. Any certification we provide is governed by a separate written certification agreement.

The verification tool

The certificate verification tool and public directory are provided for convenience. While we keep them current, the authoritative record of a certificate's status is our own certification records and — for accredited certificates — the entry made available through the applicable accreditation framework's verification database, where applicable. If you rely on a certificate, verify its current status with us.

Intellectual property & marks

The content, branding and Skyeblanc Certification marks on this site are our property. The certification mark may be used only by certified organisations, within their certified scope, and strictly in line with our Use of Marks & Certificates rules. No other use is permitted.

No consultancy

Skyeblanc Certification provides audit and certification only. We do not offer, and nothing on this site should be read as offering, consultancy, gap analysis, documentation, training or any other service that would assist an organisation to prepare the management system we later audit.

Limitation of liability

The site is provided “as is”. To the extent permitted by law, we are not liable for any loss arising from reliance on general information published here, as opposed to a certificate’s verified status or the terms of a signed certification agreement.

Governing law

These terms are governed by the laws of the jurisdiction in which Skyeblanc Certification is registered. The governing law and competent courts will be confirmed here on launch.
